About the Student Grievance Redressal Committee

The Student Grievance Redressal Committee (SGRC) is constituted to address and resolve grievances of students in a fair, transparent, and time-bound manner. The committee aims to provide a supportive mechanism for students to express their concerns related to academic, administrative, and institutional matters, thereby ensuring a healthy and conducive learning environment in the college.

Goals of the Student Grievance Redressal Committee

1. To safeguard the rights and interests of students.
2. To ensure a student-friendly and supportive academic environment.
3. To provide a transparent and effective mechanism for redressal of student grievances.
4. To promote fairness, equality, and accountability in institutional practices.
5. To build confidence among students regarding institutional grievance-handling processes.

Objectives of the Student Grievance Redressal Committee

1. To receive and redress grievances of students related to academic, administrative, and support services.
2. To ensure that grievances are resolved in a confidential, unbiased, and time-bound manner.
3. To create awareness among students about the grievance redressal procedure.
4. To encourage students to voice their concerns without fear of discrimination or victimization.
5. To examine grievances objectively and recommend appropriate remedial measures.

6. To promote amicable resolution of grievances through dialogue and counseling wherever feasible.
7. To maintain proper records and documentation of grievances received and actions taken.
8. To ensure compliance with UGC (Redressal of Grievances of Students) Regulations and other statutory guidelines.
